Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

External wall insulation with light grey render and replacement uPVC ~~double~~-glazed windows
Triple

Has the work already been started without consent?

- Yes
 No

Materials

Does the proposed development require any materials to be used externally?

- Yes
 No

Please provide a description of existing and proposed materials and finishes to be used externally (including type, colour and name for each material)

Type:

Walls

Existing materials and finishes:

brick

Proposed materials and finishes:

To achieve significant energy savings and streamline regulatory compliance, the proposed system involves installing a mineral-based External Wall Insulation (EWI) system. This system, specifically the External Thermal Insulation Composite System (ETICS), will be applied to the external walls of the current dwelling. By enhancing insulation on exterior walls, this approach not only boosts a building's thermal performance but also translates into lower energy bills and increased indoor comfort for homeowners. The investor's preferred render colour is light grey. However, the applicant is flexible and open to other neutral tones if the Local Planning Authority prefers a different shade. The final colour will be agreed with the Planning Officer for a suitable visual outcome.

Type:

Windows

Existing materials and finishes:

timber Windows

Proposed materials and finishes:

triple

The existing timber windows will be replaced with uPVC ~~double~~ triple-glazed units. The proposed windows will: match the existing window openings, retain the established proportions and rhythm of the façade, improve thermal and acoustic performance, and reduce long-term maintenance requirements. There will be no changes to the size, position or number of window openings.

Type:

Doors

Existing materials and finishes:

uPVC

Proposed materials and finishes:

uPVC

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

- It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Details of the pre-application advice received

Having considered all the information for the proposal to install external wall insulation system with a light grey render finish, it is not considered to comply with Part 1, Class A.3 (a). Therefore, formal planning permission is required.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- Yes
 No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

- Yes
 No

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

Yes

No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
