

This is a detailed map of Burnham Thorpe, Lincolnshire, showing the parish boundary in black. The map includes various buildings, roads, and water features. A scale bar indicates 1:5,000. The map is overlaid with a green diagonal hatching pattern.

Key features on the map include:

- Parish Boundary: A thick black line outlining the parish of Burnham Thorpe.
- Buildings: Numerous buildings are shown, including Burnham Thorpe Church, Burnham Thorpe Hall, and various farmhouses and cottages.
- Roads: Several roads are depicted, including the main road running through the center of the parish.
- Water Features: Burnham Beck is shown flowing through the parish. There are also several ponds and streams.
- Scale: A scale bar in the top right corner indicates a scale of 1:5,000.
- Orientation: A north arrow is located in the top right corner.

The map is overlaid with a green diagonal hatching pattern, which is a common feature in Ordnance Survey maps.

Crown copyright and database rights 2021 Ordnance Survey 0100023560

[illegible]